Unoccupied space is divided in small $dV$ (red squares) and the distance to the nearest particle is calculated. The corresponding void volume ($VV$) is depicted with the red circles.

Generally:

$$dV \ll R_{void}^3$$