

Figure S1.

Stability of isolated 3DD-C₉ oligomer fractions. (A) The composition of the $n \geq 7$ fraction remains essentially unchanged after 41hrs at 4 °C. (B) With only a slight increase in the amount of tetramer, the $n = 4-6$ fraction is also very stable under these conditions.

